Q3 2010 Financial Presentation

Nov 2010
NYSE: SMI
HKSE: 0981

Under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995)

This presentation contains, in addition to historical information, forward looking statements within the meaning of the safe harbor provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward looking statements are based on SMIC's current assumptions, expectations and projections about future events. SMIC uses words like "believe," "anticipate," "intend," "estimate," "expect," "project" and similar expressions to identify forward looking statements, although not all forward looking statements contain these words. These forward looking statements are necessarily estimates reflecting the best judgment of SMIC's senior management and involve significant risks, both known and unknown, uncertainties and other factors that may cause SMIC's actual performance, financial condition or results of operations to be materially different from those suggested by the forward looking statements including, among others, risks associated with cyclical and market conditions in the semiconductor industry, the downturn in the global economy and the impact on China's economy, intense competition, timely wafer acceptance by SMIC's customers, timely introduction of new technologies, SMIC's ability to capture growth opportunities in China, SMIC's ability to strengthen its product portfolio, supply and demand for semiconductor foundry services, industry overcapacity, shortages in equipment, components and raw materials, orders or judgments from pending litigation, availability of manufacturing capacity and financial stability in end markets.

Investors should consider the information contained in SMIC's filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), including its annual report on Form 20-F filed with the SEC on June 1, 2011, especially in the Risk Factors and Management's Discussion and Analysis of Financial Condition and Results of Operations sections, and such other documents that SMIC may file with the SEC or SEHK from time to time, including on Form 20-K. Other unknown or unpredictable factors also could have material adverse effects on SMIC's future results, performance or achievements. In light of these risks, uncertainties, assumptions and factors, the forward looking events discussed in this press release may not occur. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward looking statements, which speak only as of the date stated, or if no date is stated, as of the date of this press release. Except as required by law, SMIC undertakes no obligation and does not intend to update any forward looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.
