Safe Harbor Statements

Under the Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995

This press release contains, in addition to historical information, “forward-looking statements” within the meaning of the “safe harbor” provisions of the U.S. Private Securities Litigation Reform Act of 1995. These forward-looking statements, including statements under “Second Quarter 2011 Guidance”, and the statement regarding our expectation that both HKMG and PolySiON processes will be ready by the fourth quarter of 2011 are based on SMIC’s current assumptions, expectations and projections about future events. SMIC uses words like “believe,” “anticipate,” “intend,” “estimate,” “expect,” “project” and similar expressions to identify forward-looking statements, although not all forward-looking statements contain these words. These forward-looking statements involve significant risks, both known and unknown, uncertainties and other factors that may cause SMIC’s actual performance, financial condition or results of operations to be materially different from those suggested by the forward-looking statements including, among others, risks associated with the global economic slowdown, orders or judgments from pending litigation and financial stability in end markets.

Investors should consider the information contained in SMIC’s filings with the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission (SEC), including its annual report on 10-K filed with the SEC on April 15, 2011, especially the consolidated financial statements, and such other documents that SMIC may file with the SEC or The Hong Kong Stock Exchange Limited (SEHK) from time to time, including current reports on Form 6-K. Other unknown or unpredictable factors also could have material adverse effects on SMIC’s future results, performance or achievements. In light of these risks, uncertainties, assumptions and factors, the forward-looking events discussed in this press release may not occur. You are cautioned not to place undue reliance on these forward-looking statements, which speak only as of the date stated, or if no date is stated, as of the date of this press release. Except as may be required by law, SMIC undertakes no obligation and does not intend to update any forward-looking statement, whether as a result of new information, future events or otherwise.

Wafer revenue from Wuhan Xinxin was $ 92 million in Q1, contributing 5.8% to total revenue, vs. $48.5 million in Q4.

G A expenses increased to $ 9.8 million from $ 9.4 million mainly due to employee bonus accrual and recovery of bad debt in 4Q 01. The increase in employee bonus accrual is a component of SMIC's new employee retention program for 2011, which is contingent upon the Company's full year overall profitability.

Within Other gains or losses is $ 0. million gain from the sale of living quarter units in 1Q 01.
